MERCHANT SHIPPING

New Delhi, the 30th June 1958

S.O. 1407.—In pursuance of clause (v) of rule 5 of the Indian Merchant Shipping (Seamen's Employment Office, Bombay) Rules, 1954, the Central Government hereby determines that:

- (a) the functions of the Seamen's Employment Board, Bombay (hereinafter referred to as the Board);
- (b) the term of office of members of the Board;
- (c) the manner of filling casual vacancies among members of the Board; and
- (d) the procedure for conduct of business of the Board,

shall be as under:—

1. Functions of the Board.—The functions of the Board in addition to those specified in the Indian Merchant Shipping (Seamen's Employment Office, Bombay) Rules, 1954, shall be to advise the Director General of Shipping on matters of policy relating to the recruitment of seamen, their engagements and discharges, promotions, medical examination and such other matters arising out of the establishment of the Seamen's Employment Office, Bombay in accordance with the provisions of section 25A of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (21 of 1923), as may be referred to it for its advice by the Central Government or by the Director, Seamen's Employment Office, Bombay, as the case may be.

2. Term of office and manner of filling casual vacancies.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this clause a member of the Board shall hold office for a period of two years from the date of notification appointing him as a member and shall be eligible for reappointment:

Provided that a member shall, on the expiry of the said period of two years, continue to hold office until the appointment of his successor is notified.

(2) A member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the person in whose place he is appointed.

(3) An ex-officio member shall continue so long as he holds the office in virtue of which he is such a member.

(4) A member may resign his office by letter under his hand addressed to the Chairman of the Board but he shall continue in office until his resignation is accepted by the Central Government.

(5) Before a non-official member leaves India—

- (a) he shall intimate to the Chairman of the Board the dates of his departure from and expected return to India; or
- (b) if he intends to absent himself for a longer period than six months, he shall tender his resignation.

(6) If any non-official member leaves India without intimation to the Chairman of the Board, he shall be deemed to have resigned from the Board with effect from the date of his departure from India.

3. Secession of membership.—A member of the Board shall cease to be a member if he fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board without obtaining leave of absence from the Chairman of the Board.

4. Removal from membership.—The Central Government may remove from office any member of the Board—

- (a) if he is convicted of any offence which in the opinion of the Central Government involves moral turpitude; or
- (b) if in the opinion of the Central Government he has ceased to represent the interest on whose behalf he was appointed; or

- (c) if in the opinion of the Central Government it is for any other reason not desirable that he should continue to be a member.

5. Procedure for conduct of business.—(1) The Board shall normally meet once in three months.

(2) The Board shall meet at such place and time as may be appointed by the Chairman of the Board.

(3) Notice of not less than fifteen days from the date of posting shall be given of the time and place fixed for each ordinary meeting of the Board to every member of the Board present in India and to such notice shall be attached a list of business to be discussed at the meeting. The notice may be delivered either by hand or may be sent by registered post to the last known address of the member. Non-receipt of a notice by a member of the Board duly forwarded or sent by the Secretary of the Board shall not invalidate the proceedings of any meeting of the Board:

Provided that if the Chairman of the Board calls a meeting for considering any matter which in his opinion is urgent, a notice giving such reasonable time as he may consider necessary shall be deemed sufficient.

(4) A member of the Board desiring discussion of any specific item or of making a substantial proposition at any meeting of the Board shall give to the Secretary of the Board a written notice of the same at least seven days before the date fixed for the meeting. He shall also furnish sufficient data to enable proper discussion of the item.

(5) Any business which is not on the list shall not be considered at the meeting except with the permission of the Chairman.

(6) The Chairman of the Board or in his absence, the Vice-Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Board. In the absence of both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman from the meeting, the members of the Board present shall choose one from among themselves to preside at the meeting.

6. Extraordinary meetings.—Upon a requisition made in writing by not less than three members of the Board the Secretary of the Board shall, as soon as possible and in any case not later than fifteen days of the date of requisition, convene an extraordinary meeting of the Board. The requisition shall state the objects of the meeting proposed to be called and shall be left at the office of the Board. The notice of every such meeting along with a copy of the requisition may be delivered either by hand or may be sent by registered post to the last known address of the member of the Board.

7. Quorum.—No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Board, whether ordinary or extraordinary, unless at least six members of the Board are present. If at any meeting the number of members is less than the required quorum the Chairman of the Board shall adjourn the meeting to a date not less than seven days later informing the members present and also the other members of the date, time and place of the adjourned meeting and it shall thereupon be lawful to dispose of the business at such adjourned meeting whether the quorum is secured or not.

8. Minutes of meetings.—The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the Board shall be drawn up by the Secretary of the Board and circulated to all the members of the Board present in India. The minutes along with any amendments suggested shall be placed for confirmation at a next meeting of the Board. After the minutes are confirmed and signed by the Chairman they shall be recorded in a minute book which shall be kept open for inspection of the members of the Board at all times during office hours of the Board.

9. Recommendation.—Decisions arrived at by the Board requiring any further action for their implementation shall be recorded in the form of recommendations to be forwarded to the Director General of Shipping.

10. Voting.—It shall not be necessary to take any votes for the decision of any question. In case, however, if the majority of the members present disagree to a proposal, the fact of such disagreement shall be recorded in the minute book.

11. Sub-Committees.—With a view to facilitating the task of the Board, the Board may appoint one or more sub-committees standing or otherwise to go into and report on any specific problem or problems before the Board.

12. All communications to a member of the Board shall be sent to him at the last address furnished by him to the Secretary of the Board.

[No. 15-MS(1)/54-MT.]

New Delhi, the 8th July 1958

S.O. 1408.—In pursuance of clause (v) of rule 5 of the Indian Merchant Shipping (Seamen's Employment Office, Calcutta) Rules, 1954, the Central Government hereby determines that:

- (a) the functions of the Seamen's Employment Board, Calcutta (hereinafter referred to as the Board);
- (b) the term of office of members of the Board;
- (c) the manner of filling casual vacancies among members of the Board; and
- (d) the procedure for conduct of business of the Board,

shall be as under:—

1. Functions of the Board.—The functions of the Board in addition to those specified in the Indian Merchant Shipping (Seamen's Employment Office, Calcutta) Rules, 1954, shall be to advise the Director General of Shipping on matters of policy relating to the recruitment of seamen, their engagements and discharges, promotions, medical examination and such other matters arising out of the establishment of the Seamen's Employment Office, Calcutta in accordance with the provisions of section 25A of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (21 of 1923), as may be referred to it for its advice by the Central Government or by the Director, Seamen's Employment Office, Calcutta, as the case may be.

2. Term of office and manner of filling casual vacancies.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this clause a member of the Board shall hold office for a period of two years from the date of notification appointing him as a member and shall be eligible for reappointment:

Provided that a member shall, on the expiry of the said period of two years, continue to hold office until the appointment of his successor is notified.

(2) A member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the person in whose place he is appointed.

(3) An ex-officio member shall continue so long as he holds the office in virtue of which he is such a member.

(4) A member may resign his office by letter under his hand addressed to the Chairman of the Board but he shall continue in office until his resignation is accepted by the Central Government.

(5) Before a non-official member leaves India—

- (a) he shall intimate to the Chairman of the Board the dates of his departure from and expected return to India; or
- (b) if he intends to absent himself for a longer period than six months, he shall tender his resignation.

(6) If any non-official member leaves India without intimation to the Chairman of the Board he shall be deemed to have resigned from the Board with effect from the date of his departure from India.

3. Secession of membership.—A member of the Board shall cease to be a member if he fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board without obtaining leave of absence from the Chairman of the Board.

4. Removal from membership.—The Central Government may remove from office any member of the Board—

- (a) if he is convicted of any offence which in the opinion of the Central Government involves moral turpitude; or
- (b) if in the opinion of the Central Government he has ceased to represent the interest on whose behalf he was appointed; or

- (c) if in the opinion of the Central Government it is for any other reason not desirable that he should continue to be a member.

5. Procedure for conduct of business.—(1) The Board shall normally meet once in three months.

(2) The Board shall meet at such place and time as may be appointed by the Chairman of the Board.

(3) Notice of not less than fifteen days from the date of posting shall be given of the time and place fixed for each ordinary meeting of the Board to every member of the Board present in India and to such notice shall be attached a list of business to be discussed at the meeting. The notice may be delivered either by hand or may be sent by registered post to the last known address of the member. Non-receipt of a notice by a member of the Board duly forwarded or sent by the Secretary of the Board shall not invalidate the proceedings of any meeting of the Board:

Provided that if the Chairman of the Board calls a meeting for considering any matter which in his opinion is urgent, a notice giving such reasonable time as he may consider necessary shall be deemed sufficient.

(4) A member of the Board desiring discussion of any specific item or of making a substantial proposition at any meeting of the Board shall give to the Secretary of the Board a written notice of the same at least seven days before the date fixed for the meeting. He shall also furnish sufficient data to enable proper discussion of the item.

(5) Any business which is not on the list shall not be considered at the meeting except with the permission of the Chairman.

(6) The Chairman of the Board or in his absence the Vice-Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Board. In the absence of both the Chairman and Vice-Chairman from the meeting, the members of the Board present shall choose one from among themselves to preside at the meeting.

6. Extraordinary meetings.—Upon a requisition made in writing by not less than three members of the Board the Secretary of the Board shall, as soon as possible and in any case not later than fifteen days of the date of requisition, convene an extraordinary meeting of the Board. The requisition shall state the objects of the meeting proposed to be called and shall be left at the office of the Board. The notice of every such meeting along with a copy of the requisition may be delivered either by hand or may be sent by registered post to the last known address of the member of the Board.

7. Quorum.—No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Board, whether ordinary or extraordinary, unless at least six members of the Board are present. If at any meeting the number of members is less than the required quorum the Chairman of the Board shall adjourn the meeting to a date not less than seven days later informing the members present and also the other members of the date, time and place of the adjourned meeting and it shall thereupon be lawful to dispose of the business at such adjourned meeting whether the quorum is secured or not.

8. Minutes of meetings.—The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the Board shall be drawn up by the Secretary of the Board and circulated to all the members of the Board present in India. The minutes along with any amendments suggested shall be placed for confirmation at a next meeting of the Board. After the minutes are confirmed and signed by the Chairman they shall be recorded in a Minute book which shall be kept open for inspection of the members of the Board at all times during office hours of the Board.

9. Recommendation.—Decisions arrived at by the Board requiring any further action for their implementation shall be recorded in the form of recommendations to be forwarded to the Director General of Shipping.

10. Voting.—It shall not be necessary to take any votes for the decision of any question. In case, however, if the majority of the members present disagree to a proposal, the fact of such disagreement shall be recorded in the minute book.

11. Sub-committees.—With a view to facilitating the task of the Board, the Board may appoint one or more sub-committees, Standing or otherwise to go into and report on any specific problem or problems before the Board.

12. All communications to a member of the Board shall be sent to him at the last address furnished by him to the Secretary to the Board.
